“Intensifying and manifesting your personal relationship with the Light”

“The way to new consciousness is also called the way of awakening; which is seeing through the night.

Whoever wakes up from the night is in the Light. In him is the Light”.

TULKU SONAM CHOEDUP RINPOCHE

👉 A meeting with Tulku Sonam Choedup Rinpoche, October 20, 2019

We are glad to welcome again Tulku Sonam Choedup Rinpoche in October 2019 in the Netherlands.

It is a very nice opportunity to make contact with the oldest Tibetan tradition.

Especially now in our contemporary society this philosophy contains a source of valuable information and give deeper insights and answers to many important questions in our life.

 A meeting with Tulku Sonam Choedup Rinpoche on October 20, 2019.

From 10.30 – 12.45 o'clock.

The theme of the lecture is:

" How to stay positive in life during a period full of disappointments?"

and

" How do you give meaning to your life during this period of your life?"

From the western background, we have built up a great deal of expertise in this, such as in various forms of therapy. In the meanwhile the Eastern way of thinking has now also become more and more integrated into the Western way of thinking and can no longer even be excluded, such as meditation, mindfulness, yoga etc.

Traditionally, the many different mantras have played an important role in Tibetan Buddhism. How does the mantra work, particularly during difficult circumstances; and how is it applied during the transition to a new form of existence?

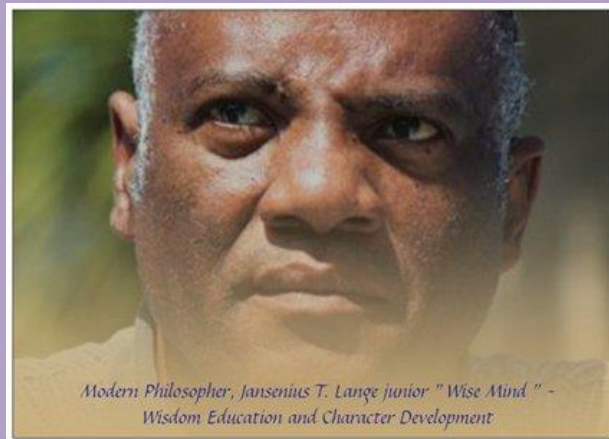

In addition, there is also an opportunity to ask questions.

 The proceeds of the meeting are all for the benefit of his life mission.
